

2012 COMMITTEE SIGN-UP SHEET

The volunteer committees of the Home Builders Association of Winston-Salem are the “backbone” of the organization. In order for the HBA to effectively promote the home building industry and continue to provide outstanding services and support to the membership, your help is needed with the committees listed below. Serving on any of these committees can provide you with unique and valuable opportunities to network with industry peers and contacts, develop leadership skills and serve your industry and community.

So, please take a moment to review the committee listing and consider volunteering where you see your talents and abilities best utilized and your professional interests best served.
